

JCF Charity Champion: Michael Meltzer

January 26, 2016

This month, Jewish Communal Fund is privileged to interview our Charity Champion Michael Meltzer, a portfolio manager at Tocqueville Asset Management who is very involved with charitable causes. A 2015 Five Star Wealth Manager, Michael supports a wide range of organizations, from UJA-Federation of New York to the Gift of Life Bone Marrow Foundation and Kids of Courage. He received a 2015 “Advisors with Heart” Award from WealthManagement.com. Here, he talks with JCF about why he likes to support causes that are important to colleagues and friends and his deep involvement as the Treasurer and Chairman of the Board of Maya’s Hope, a charity that provides basic needs to poor children around the globe. Click here to continue reading.